

The Word was made flesh
and dwelt among us

Mary Christmas

The Birth of the Savior on Mary's altar
on Christmas Night

To

You

Merry Christmas
of to-day and

"Mary Christmas"
of yesterday

When Anglo-Christians
wished fellow Christians
That Delight and spiritual Bliss
that was Mary's on the day when Christ was born.

Francis J. Shields
Ben. Jones

240

241

COPYRIGHT 1940
THE SALVATORIAN FATHERS
ST. NAZIANZ, WIS.

NO 71

The Bite Angle

It Could Be Cuter

By Francis Shields

We'll essay to begin our little parody with Uncle Wenesclaus Nasturtium's "Advice to the Livelong, Rejected, Slap-happy and Perpetual Appendages to the Lovelorn List".

Our first letter comes from a hen-pecked husband:
Dear Winnie,

My wife and I don't get along so well, and I'm worried. Should we make up or should I continue to literally hate her?

Signed,
Lemuel S. Ott.

Uncle Nasturium's Answer:

Dear Sot—

By all means don't pursue the former course! Remember that it was this make-up business that *smear*ed you in the first place. Continue to hate the old hag—didn't Cain have hatred for his brother as long as he was Abel?

Signed,
Unk.

And then one from the distraught lover:

Dear Louse:

I love a girl but she's deaf and I'm dumb. Should I marry her?

Sin sear lee yaws,
"Fats" Skinner.

My dear Skinny,

For heaven's sake marry the girl. You'll both be unspeakably happy.

Sighed (Ah!), Wenesclaus.

And then this one—

Dere Nasty,

My boy friend serenades me every night, and feeds me a "line." Should I believe all that he says when he's making love to me?

Love, Cobina.

My dearest Beany—

You perhaps have seen the ancient stringed instrument with which the lover of old wooed the lady of his heart. Love-making is the same now as it was in those old days, when the Greek girl sat all evening listening to a lyre.

Success,
U. W. N.

Enuf's 'nuf, I guess, so we'll have no more of that. But how about this quip:

Editor Shields:—"Whatsa good name for a bartender?"

Collon:—"Philip McCann."

* * *

"That quarter," exclaimed an old inebriate, flinging down a very poor counterfeit, "is just like Sloppy Joe's Tavern. Blame me if I can pass it!"

A disgruntled sea captain was about to dance with a fastidious lady, who suggested that he put on his gloves before the dance proceeded.

"Never mind me," was the stiff reply, "I'll wash up when I'm through dancing."

* * *

Gleanings from the lame-brain of the author:—

Love makes thieves of some of us. Many a man has received a life sentence for stealing a kiss.

I. O. U's. payable on sight should never be presented to blind men.

VARSIITY WINS FIRST ENCOUNTER

Trounces St. Augustine's 31-24

By William Martin

Displaying fine form in their game of the season, St. Michael's Varsity beat St. Augustine's by the score of 31-24. The game was played on Dec. 6 at St. Athanasius' Hall. At the end of the first quarter, the Michaelmen were leading 6-5, but they were behind at the end of the second and third quarters. In the last period however, the team's offense and defense began to click, and when the final whistle was blown, St. Michael's had the game safely tucked away. Captain Charlie Pascale was high scorer of the game with 17 points, and Driscoll came close behind him with 9. The contest couldn't, by any means, be called a walk-away, because the St. Augustine's passing was working with clock-like precision. If the boys can keep up their fine playing, we might have a good chance at that C.H.S. A.A. Title. A little professional touch was added to the game by the announcing of Messrs. Priato and Villari.

	G	F	P
Pascale	8	1	17
Driscoll	8	1	9
Sadowski	1	0	2
Zeitler	1	0	2
Curtin	0	1	1
Barrett	0	0	0
Floyd	0	0	0
Flaherty	0	0	0

3B PRESENTS YULETIDE COMEDY

(Continued from Page 3)

assumed by Tom Hennessy. Ken Johnson is the Stranger and Alphonse Villari adds an artistic touch to the play. The remainder of the Dramatis Personae includes Felix Beary, Howard Fulton, Victor Sadowski, George Astarita, Albert Rehorn, William Alford, Thomas McQuillan, Felix Millus, Marcello Panarello and others. The remainder of the class comprises the stage crew, prompters and scenery men.

3B has worked, in the short time allotted, to some extent on this play and hopes to make it a success. None of the actors promise to be outstanding, but we are sure they will do their best to entertain us. So, let us enter into the true Christmas spirit and enjoy the play which was never written for Broadway!

THE SENIOR CLASS
INVITES YOU TO ATTEND THE SENIOR PROM
JANUARY 17th

Trackmen H Winged

By Harold

In spite of the the annual affair of Trackmen, former attended by a r enjoyment seekers. this month a chee school auditorium social success of we may assume end was taken ca

The members responsible for th William Averill, Joseph Lillis, Jo Martin Walsh. Th of Brother Quent the Winged "M" committee a good all. Music was fu Vent and his oche University.

AT THE

(Continued fr

Jimmy Gallagher a Home Notes:—

This section of deals with member student body who a The freshmen su made us feel like

Teddy Miller an —the inseparable— ger and Rita Wac with his sister Eil maurice and Bee Ridge High mal

Kenny Johnson e resentative from S mercial, Jean I Burns was with Washington Irvin Driscoll, Jim Curt lin, and Jim Mc the company of Debs. Neil Goldin Evelyn Corkey; C and a Miss Byrne

We were unable everybody, but thi the elite of Bay bush and Park S honor. We hope to again next year. S

EXPERT PR FOR REGENTS AND
COLLEGE OR PROFE

Thorough and Ti
Regents Exams
in January, Jun
Our Diploma Adr
Day and Even

Also Secretarial
Machine Courses.

BORO
ACAD

FULLY ACCREDI
PRIVATE HIGH RESULT-GETTING

DEKALB cor. FLAT
Opposite the Par
Brooklyn, N. Y.

REQUEST CATALOG

Mr. Francis J. Shields,
244 # 87th St.,
Brooklyn, N.Y.