Recall below memos here.

I lost items (records) or other info after UHC's first rejection of original claim.

This day 7/03/10, I tried to recover any info about the rejected claim. It apparently was a claim based on consult w/ Dr. Lomeri. Nothing new now.

Forget this Aug. 2009 letter, and ignore tracking anything re orig claim. G'bye!

			Began using Rx fluorouracil 5% (F5%) topical cream to overcome my 2 foot showing red skin, a very dry touch for my left outer ankle bone, and on the inner bend of my right foot.	Had some problems to keep the "F5%" salve from drying out due to sock contacts.
12	13	14	15	16	17	18
	Have come to better effective use of the fluor (F5%) topical cream. Am using 2 applications of the topical cream, 1 at bed- time & overnight, and in dressing	in the morn, for the day. Have success in using soft gauze pads 2"x2", & 3"x3", or 2"x3". Lather the pad(s) w/ "F5%" and use spec. tape to hold the pads atop the dry, red skin on my 2 feet.

			✓ Glenville Hth Ctr 10:30 am Shot: B12 Vitamins Done		On Thurs 7/23, Anna calls Glenville HCC and arranges an appointment for this day, Fri, 7/24 w/ Dr. Pablo Lopez for showing F's 3 sore spots that appeared on his ankles, and of which one 2"x3" red & yellow, raw & painful flesh seems not to be healing. It's on his left ankle, exuding a sticky and bubbly, top skin surface.
26	27	28	29	30	30
					Dr. Lopez has advised Frank today to return after another week w/ these raw sores, meanwhile elevating his feet, and placing a gauze and bandaged coverage. The sores are to be controlled by an antibiotic taken by mouth. The coverage is for raising the pressure of his ankles, to improve blood flow.	7/31 The return app't is for 10:30 am to see what up or down change occurred, if any.
